

Lesson 4 - Deforestation - Information Report

Lesson 4 - Concluding paragraph

Lesson 4 Concluding paragraph

1) Use a Transitional Phrase:

Writing a Conclusion for an Information Report

Transitional Phrase - Some great Transitional phrases to summarise are:

Finally

In conclusion, the reptile family holds many long, large, and heavy snakes, across the world.

As you can see

In conclusion

In summary, the world holds many reptiles, and we have meet some of the largest ones in this report.

In summary

Overall

Overall, the reptile family holds some very large and heavy members.

Therefore

To summarise

2) You are trying to 'summarise' some of the things that you've found out;

- Local - you could write that koalas are endangered because all of their gum tree homes are being cut down to make paddocks.
- Global - you could write that some parts of the world are turning into deserts, because the forests aren't there to make clouds and rain any more.

3) Write about something that you learned that could help the Earth's forests;

- it could be to reduce, reuse and recycle with paper,
 - or it could be to plant more trees in your area.
-
- You might write this on paper, or you may write it below on this Google doc. ↓↓
-
- PLEASE read it out aloud when you have finished, then you can tell if it makes sense.

Deforestation - Information Report

Concluding paragraph

- Remember to use a transitional phrase.
- You are trying to 'summarise' some of the things that you've found out; local and global.
- Also write about something that you learned that could help the Earth's forests.

In conclusion deforestation