Week 8 - CBCA Winner 2021 - No! Never! By Libby Hathorn on Storybox Library

No! Never! is a winning Book Week book this year. It is a cautionary story about a sweet little girl called Georgie who always made her parents happy ...until she discovered one powerful phrase: No! Never!

Background information from the author.

The idea for this story was inspired by a funny event. Libby stepped on her granddaughter's Lego blocks and asked her to pick them up. Georgina said "No! Never!" and this story developed. So it's true that great story ideas can come from our ordinary life.

Activity 1

Materials

Paper and pencils

Plan a YES DAY

Fold a sheet of paper into 4 rectangles or boxes.

Write a big YES at the top of the page for your heading (you can make this fancy and colourful)

Label each of the 4 boxes in this order Morning ... Lunchtime... Afternoon ... Night

Write or draw the activities you would love to do at these times if Mum and/or Dad could only say YES! Oh, what fun you could have!

Activity 2

Let's try something new with StoryBox Library. It's called closed captions (cc) and the words appear on the screen.

Instructions

To turn on closed captions (cc)

https://storyboxlibrary.com.au/stories/no-never

Click on the link above for No! Never! and start to play it. Look for the settings (cogwheel) at bottom right of screen.

Click the wheel. A box will pop up. Look for CC button. Click on it. Then click on the No! Never! in the box to turn cc (closed captions) on.

Go back to the story (link) and watch it again. Now you can read along with the words on the video.

Make a SAID list.

On a piece of paper write SAID in fancy writing. As you read through the story this time write down as many words as you can that are used instead of said. You can keep this SAID list to help you with your writing in the future.
